 Lobbying: Attempting to influence legislation (that is, acts, bills, resolutions or similar items) through communication (a) with any member or employee of a legislative body or (b) with any government official or employee who does or may participate in the formulation of legislation. An organization will be regarded as attempting to influence legislation if it contacts, or urges the public to contact, members or employees of a legislative body for the purpose of proposing, supporting, or opposing legislation, or if the organization advocates the adoption or rejection of legislation. A legislative body includes Congress, a state legislature, and the governing body of any county or city. Legislation does not include actions by the executive branch, any court, or any federal, state or local administrative agency.

Lobbying expenditures: Monies paid or financial obligations incurred for lobbying.
